Today's Meeting

In attendance:

President Karl rang the opening bell at seven. Charlene D., Ray, Roger, John, Randy, Jerry, Janet, Susan, Marv, Charlene G. and Roy Y. Susan led the pledge, and Jerry gave the invocation.

Roy Yates provided an update on the rifle for our raffle to raise the balance of funds for our commitment to the Hayfork Cemetery. Roy Y., has put together a package with a browning 270 with wood stock, a high end scope and a sling. The rifle will require the sale of 160 tickets at $10 per ticket to clear even on the rifle package. The members approved paying for the rifle up front, so that it could be sold to Roy, which would allow us to display the rifle at our events while we are selling tickets. Randy is going to finalize the Shasta Train tickets and lodging this week so that we can produce posters and print tickets.

Charlene D., is still working on getting a Rotary candidate for the event. Karl gave her Roy B.'s Granddaughter's name.

Karl asked the members if they want a social meeting for the 5th Wednesday in September, or not. The members decided to have a regular meeting because everyone is so busy at this time of the year.

Today's Program

There was not formal program today.

Our Club will be hosting the inbound GSE Team on October 11th and 12th. Charlene D., is looking for hosts for two members of the Team. Charlene will be hosting one Team member and Karl will be hosting two members.

[Editor's Note: This author has hosted people from other countries several times in the past and has found it to be a wonderful experience each and every time. This is one of the goals of Rotary....World Peace through understanding of other cultures.]

The Club discussed the issue of dinner for the Team on Sunday evening. It was decided that the Club would put on a dinner (most likely at the Fair dining hall, if it is available) for the Team. This will allow the Team to present their program to our Club. We will invite the Weaverville Club to join us in this event.
